

Subject: Nondiscrimination in Services

To: Parents / Guardians

From: Theresa Snyder, Executive Director

Admissions, the provisions of service, and the referrals of clients shall be made without regard to race, color, religious creed, disability, ancestry, national origin (including limited English proficiency), age or sex.

Program services shall be made accessible to eligible persons with disabilities through most practical and economically feasible methods available. These methods include, but are not limited to, equipment redesign, the provision of aides, and the use of alternative service delivery locations. Structural modifications shall be considered only as a last resort among available methods.

Any Parent of Child (and/or their guardian) who believes they have been discriminated against, may file a complaint of discrimination with:
